Treasury Department,
BUREAU OF THE MINT,
Washington, D. C., June 6, 1881.

Sir:

In order that there may be as little delay as possible in completing your Annual Settlement you are authorized to close your Mint for receiving deposits on the 24th instant, and I have to request that you will cause such arrangements to be made - putting clippings into ingots etc. - as will expedite as much as possible the weighing of bullion in delivery.

A representative of this Office will be present at the commencement of the Settlement on the 25th and I desire that it should be
